

Reflecting Reformation

Internationale Akademische Summer School

4. – 8. Juli 2016

 AUGUSTANA
Theologische Hochschule der
Evangelisch-Lutherischen Kirche in Bayern

 Mission
EineWelt
Weil es uns bewegt!

Montag, 4. Juli, Ort: Mission EineWelt

REFLECTING REFORMATION – HISTORISCHE PERSPECTIVEN UND HERAUSFORDERUNGEN

9.00 am	Eröffnung und Einführung
9.30 am	Key Lecture: Religion and Politics: Reformation stimuli and their meaning for today	Prof. Dr. Gury Schneider-Ludorff, Augustana-Hochschule Neuendettelsau, Germany
10.45 am	Coffee/Tea
11.00 am	The Relationship of “Reformation” and “Migration”	Prof. Dr. Lothar Vogel, Facoltà Valdese di Teologia, Rome, Italy
12.00 am	Lunch
2.00 pm	Celebrating Reformation in a French Context	Prof. Dr. Gilles Vidal, Faculté Libre de Théologie Protestant, Montpellier, France
2.45 pm	From Reformation to the World of Contexts – Colorful Historic Transformation and Character of Lutheranism in Hungary/ECE	Prof. Dr. András Korányi, Lutheran University Budapest, Hungary
3.30 pm	Coffee/Tea
3.45 pm	Luther in paradise: A preliminary study of Luther’s reception in New Spain	Revdo. Hernández Miranda Atahualpa, Iglesia Evangélica Luterana de Colombia
4.30 pm	The Reformation Re-imagined in Contemporary African Christianity: A Glance Through the Eyes of Church Music in East Africa	Dr. William Obaga, Neuendettelsau, Germany/Kenya
5.15 pm	The Impact of the Reformation on Myanmar from a Social-Theological Perspective	Rev. Ngun Cer Chin, University of Regensburg, Germany/Myanmar
6.00 pm	Dinner
7.00 pm	Reflecting Groups

Dienstag, 5. Juli, Ort: Augustana-Hochschule

REFLECTING REFORMATION – PERSPEKTIVEN UND HERAUSFORDERUNGEN FÜR DAS SELBSTVERSTÄNDNIS UND DIE PRAXIS DER KIRCHE

9.45 am	Welcome at the Augustana-Hochschule	President Prof. Dr. Christian Strecker, Augustana-Hochschule
10.00 am	Key Lecture: Universal Priesthood of All Believers: Unfulfilled Promise of the Reformation	Prof. Dr. Craig Nesson, Wartburg Theological Seminary, Dubuque, USA
11.15 am	Coffee/Tea
11.30 am	The Identity of the Lutheran Church in Tanzania	Vice Chancellor Rev. Prof. Dr. J. W. Parsalaw, Rev. Dr. Angela Olotu, Tumaini University Makumira, Tanzania
12.30 am	Lunch
1.30 am	Visit the Campus of Augustana-Hochschule
2.30 pm	Christian Identity and Social Commitment	Prof. Dr. Suet Man Angel Lam, Lutheran Theological Seminary Hongkong
	Lutheran Distinctives in South East Asia - necessity or luxury?	Rev. Wolfgang Grieninger, Seminari Teoloji Malaysia/ Mission EineWelt
3.30 pm	Coffee/Tea
3.45 pm	How Reformation is understood by Lutherans in Papua New Guinea today	Principal Rev. Dr. Michael Wan, Martin-Luther-Seminary, Lae, Papua New Guinea
	In the Context of Reformation: The integrity of creation manifests the salvific and gracious love of God and calls for human responsibility	Principal Dr. Daniel Ndemuweda, United Lutheran Theological Seminary Paulinum, Windhoek, Namibia
4.45 pm	Reflecting Groups
6.10 pm	Dinner
7.00 pm	Public Lecture: Studying Christianity in Contemporary China: a challenge to the imagination of Christian identity	Dr. Jason Lam, Institute of Sino-Christian Studies, Hongkong

Mittwoch, 6. Juli, Ort: Mission EineWelt

REFLECTING REFORMATION – IN EINER MULTIRELIGIÖSEN WELT

9.00 am	Key Lecture: “Real progress has been made only when the ‘other’ ceases to be ontological category”	Associate Prof. Dr. Claudia Jahnel, Mission EineWelt, Neuendettelsau, Germany
10.00 am	Coffee/Tea
10.15 am	The Reformation, Theological Education and Interfaith Relations in Cameroon	Rev. Margaret Salli Effungani, PROCURA, Nairobi, Kenya
10.50 am	The Church and the Embodiment of Luther’s Reformation in Myanmar	Rev. Saw Augurlion, University of Erlangen, Myanmar
11.25 am	Popculture Dystopias and Reformation: Luther’s anthropology as a realistic counterpoint	Rev. Alexander Stahlhoefer, University of Erlangen/Brazil
12.00 am	Lunch
7.00 pm	Reflecting International Studies – Evening with students of Augustana-Hochschule

Donnerstag, 7. Juli, Ort: Mission EineWelt

REFLECTING REFORMATION – UND DIE VIELFALT DER KULTUREN

9.00 am	The Reformation and Cross-Cultural Missions in Sabah	Dr. Lip Siong Chen, Sabah Theological Seminary, Kota Kinabalu, Sabah, Malaysia
10.00 am	The Reformation and the Different Cultures in Madagascar	Director Rev. Albert Ranaivomanana, Regional Seminary of the Malagasy Lutheran Church, Mahajanga, Madagascar
	Mission in Context: Challenges to the Reformation from an Andean indigenous perspective	Director Académico Juan Carlos Chávez Quispe, Instituto Superior Ecuaménico Andino de Teología ISEAT, Bolivia
11.15 am	Reflecting Groups
12.00 am	Lunch
2.30 pm	Relational Theology and the Reforming of Oceania	Rev. Dr. Upolu Luma Vaai, Pacific Theological College, Suva, Fidschi
	Notes on Lutheran Faith in Oceania and Germany	Rev. Dr. Michael Press, Munich
3.30 pm	Coffee/Tea
4.00 pm	Key Lecture: Lutheran Mission Between Particularism and Universalism	Prof. Dr. Andreas Nehring, University of Erlangen, Germany
6.00 pm	Dinner

Freitag, 8. Juli, Ort: Mission EineWelt

REFLECTING REFORMATION – POSTKOLONIALE PERSPEKTIVEN

9.00 am	Key Lecture: Migration and Reformation – Postcolonial Perspectives	Prof. Dr. Heike Walz, Augustana-Hochschule Neuendettelsau, Germany
10.00 am	The Gospel is at Risk: reclaiming Luther’s two-kingdom teaching in relation to Christian responsibility for the world. An Australian perspective on the refugee, asylum, border protection debate	Academic Dean Rev Dr Stephen Haar, Australian Lutheran College, University of Divinity, Adelaide, Australia
	Humans are Not for Sale: “Life with the other”: migration, displacement and gender justice	Rev. Geraldina J. Alvarez Rocha, Comunion de las Iglesias Luteranas de Centro América, Managua, Nicaragua
	The Right to have Rights: Flight and Migration from a European Perspective - Theological reflexions and reformation insights	Prof. Dr. Kathrin Winkler, Evangelische Hochschule Nürnberg, Germany
11.00 am	Panel Discussion
12.00 am	Lunch
2.00 pm	The Gospel Approach on the Incidence of Hunger and Poverty in the Philippines	Rev. Daniel B. Pondevida, Lutheran Church of the Philippines
	African Feminist Theology: Overcoming Violence against Women in Light of Reformation	Dr. Margaret Obaga, Mission EineWelt, Neuendettelsau/Kenya
3.00 pm	Faith and Commitment: A theological reflection on contemporary political commitment of believers. A perspective from the underside of history	Mr. Moises Medrano Garay, University of Regensburg, Germany/Nicaragua
	Dialogue Between Theology and Science in the Face of Global Crisis from the Interdisciplinary Perspective	Dean Prof. Dr. Deuk-Chil Kwon, Luther University, Korea (Republik)
4.00 pm	Official Closure

Kooperationsveranstaltung von Augustana-Hochschule und Mission EineWelt

Team:

Dr. Augustawati Hildebrandt Rambe, Janning Hoenen, PD Dr. Claudia Jahnel, PD Dr. Markus Mülke, Dr. Margaret Obaga, Michael Seitz

Infos unter: Referat Mission Interkulturell, Mission EineWelt,
E-Mail: mi@mission-einewelt.de, Tel: 09874-91500